Hutchings' Vegetable Dyspepsia Bitters.—
This is valuable compound, the only remedy that will permanently core the above terrible maindy, is now within the reach of all. Who that has ever been affilted but will rejuice to think that they can so easily bring their troubles to an ead? Who that have their lives emittered with head-acte, palpitation of the heart, indigestion, and nervecusees, verging on complete debitity and prostration, will lose a mement in getting the only remedy, which may be had at the principal depot, No. 122 Fulton street, New York. Price, 50 cents a bottle.

Do they bite you, friends, at night? Do they, the bed bugs, trouble you? Do the rate and mice steal from your larder? Do they destroy your property by day or night? Do the cockroaches infest your dwelling? Do the Crotos bugs annoy you? Do the ants run over your tables and pantries? Do then, friends, if your dwelling, ship, market or restaurant be infested with any of the shove vermin or insects, away to COSTAE'S Depot. 444 Broadway, and purchase some of his esterminator, for it is the only thing in the city that is effectual.

Who sells the best Lintment for Rheuma-tism, Pains, Aches, and Soreness? The answer is by those who have tried the article—BUSH'S Magic Cream. This Liniment is se much superior to the old style of making Hai-ments that there is no comparison. Principal depot, 325 Greenwich, corner of Dunne street, and by the druggists. Price, 25 cents.

Fever and Ague, and Diseases of the Liver, quickly cured by Wynkoop & Co.'s Exterminator. Office, 123 Pulton street, second floor. I have analyzed Wynkoop & Co.'s Exterminator; it is a powerful tonic, and the best article for the purpose recommended that I know of before the public. EDW. A. KENT, Practical Chemist, 116 John st.

Property of the Worken of the Security in December last, some thirty of the worken in the employ of Stearns & Marvin, the Wilder's Safe manufacturers, commenced making a Safe for the preservation of the Governor's books and papers from fire. Every evening, after their usual daily labor was over, they went to work upon this Safe, much to the annoyance of the police and watchmen on duty in St. Mark's Place, and the firemen in the vicinity, who were frequently startled by a brilliant light in the manufactory, and noises issuing from it in the dead of night—when, apon examination, they found the sooty Vuleans hard at work in their shirt sleaves, while the thermometer outside stood at zero. The following letter from Koseuth will explain to the inhabitants of St. Mark's Place why their nocettainly has cause to be proud of the enthusiasm of these men:— Louisvitta, Friday, March 5, 1822.

GINTIEMEN:—I received your letter of the dist January, informing me that the workmen of your manufactory presented to me a Safamander Safe. Please to convey my gratered thanks to those patriotic thirty men, with whose names you have been kind enough to make me acquainted, and who by having been engaged during six weeks every evening after their usual daily labor was over in making the above Safe, have in particular practically proved, which I never doubted of, and repeatedly expressed in my public addresses, that the poer, they know, they feel my cause; they give more than money or arms, they give their bit of bread, gained by hard work, and sacrifice the half of it to the principle. I lee leave to assure them also that by wishing by means of their valuable gift to preserve my books and papers from fire, they unmistakably indores my cause, and deserve not only my and my country's gratitude, but that of humanity, as there is a consolidation of eternal interests which can be increased but
